You’re going to love studying in Melbourne – a vibrant hub of style, sport, culture and fun.

The University of Melbourne has been welcoming recipients of Australian Government scholarship programs since the 1950s. We are committed to supporting development programs and we’re proud of our graduates, who go on to make significant contributions to capacity building in their home countries.

Great universities open doors. Your experience at the University of Melbourne will equip you to rise to the challenge of contributing to your country.

STUDY IN THE HEART OF MELBOURNE

Our main campus is in Parkville, only a few minutes from the centre of Melbourne. The campus is a beautiful mix of historic sandstone buildings, contemporary architecture, sustainable design and stunning outdoor spaces that are a perfect place to meet classmates or catch up on your reading.

The campus has a unique ambience with green spaces, cafes, galleries, a theatre, banks, bookshops and more.

Melbourne is Australia’s most cosmopolitan city and home to people from over 200 different nations. It is consistently ranked among the world’s most liveable cities.

As a student living in Melbourne, you’ll instantly feel at home in this safe, vibrant and multicultural city.

OUR STUDENTS

The University is currently host to approximately 360 Australia Awards scholars from 33 countries.

Hans Peter Herewila (Indonesia) completed his Master of Public Health in 2018. He was the recipient of the prestigious Allison Sudradjat Prize. During his studies, Hans Peter travelled to India, partly supported by a University of Melbourne Global Mobility grant. There he studied a world-renowned primary health care program in Jamkhed India that focused on principles of health policy development and program management of communities in developing countries. He was also an active and very valued committee member of Australia Awards Scholars Club.
WHY MELBOURNE?

At the University of Melbourne, we are proud of our outstanding reputation for excellence in teaching and research.

Independently published world rankings consistently place us as a leader in higher education in Australia, the Asia-Pacific and around the globe – and all this in one of the world’s most liveable cities!

Melbourne has become one of the world’s most multicultural cities and a dynamic international business hub, but it’s still easy to navigate.

The inner city is a cluster of exciting communities connected by public transport and bike paths – and the University of Melbourne is at the heart of it all.

You can spend time in the famous cobblestone lanes, or at world-class theatre productions. Or head out of town to discover some of regional Victoria’s iconic beaches, wineries, bushwalking and farm-to-table food.

SERVICES FOR AUSTRALIA AWARDS SCHOLARS

The University of Melbourne is committed to providing high-level support to our Australia Awards scholars.

We offer a range of services that are tailored specifically for you and your family, and we make sure advice and assistance are always at hand.

AUSTRALIA AWARDS WEBSITE

The University has a dedicated website that provides all the information you need as an Australia Awards Scholar, including your entitlements and responsibilities, information for new students and academic advice.

services.unimelb.edu.au/scholarships/aus-awards

MENTOR PROGRAM

All new Australia Awards Scholars are assigned a senior student mentor before arriving in Melbourne. Your mentor will be on hand to act as a contact person in Melbourne, a source of advice and a friendly face. Your mentor can also help you with questions about coming to Australia and life on campus.

ALUMNI WELCOME

You can meet and form friendships with members of our alumni community through our Welcome to Melbourne program. Past University of Melbourne students will share their campus memories and offer you an insight into the life of a student at the University of Melbourne.

AIRPORT PICK UP AND TEMPORARY ACCOMMODATION

The University provides a free transfer service to commencing Australia Awards Scholars from Melbourne Airport (Tullamarine) to Melbourne’s central business district, Parkville and surrounding areas. More information will be provided with your offer and welcome letter.

Temporary accommodation can also be arranged if required (please note there is a cost involved).
FAMILY SUPPORT
Bringing your family to Australia involves:

- Organising and paying for your family’s visa, travel and accommodation
- Arranging schooling, childcare and immunisations
- Upgrading from single to family Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC)
- Implementing a savings plan for the cost of return airfares and other expenses for your family members.

The University can provide you with advice about bringing your family to stay with you in Australia.

FINANCIAL AID
The University offers free and confidential advice to students on a range of financial matters. Resources and assistance can also be provided to determine what you and your family should expect to spend on rent, childcare, and other living costs while living in Melbourne.

RELIGIOUS AND COMMUNITY SUPPORT
Cultural and religious diversity is an important part of life in Australia. Temples, mosques, churches and synagogues are found across Melbourne and in some Victorian towns.

Chaplains from a variety of faith backgrounds are available to all members of the University community and provide spiritual support and pastoral care. Prayer rooms are also available at all campuses.

DISABILITY SUPPORT
The University provides advice, information and services to reduce the impact of health and disability-related issues on your study. Support is available to all students experiencing disability to facilitate equitable participation in academic and extracurricular activities.

If you have advised the scholarship administrator in your home country of a disability during the scholarship application process, they will liaise with the University before your arrival to make reasonable adjustments to allow you to participate in the program. There is also ongoing support once you arrive at the University. You can make an appointment with a Student Equity Adviser who will work with you to facilitate accommodation appropriate to your requirements.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

The University has a range of academic services to help you in your transition to study at Melbourne.

INTRODUCTORY ACADEMIC PROGRAM

New Australia Awards Scholars must enrol and participate in the Introductory Academic Program (IAP) before the semester begins.

The IAP will introduce you to the demands of the Australian academic environment and includes general information sessions for scholars. The program focuses on developing the academic skills you will need to make a smooth transition to study in Australia.

ACADEMIC SKILLS

The University provides comprehensive academic skills support, including workshops, individual tutorials and other resources to develop your academic and language skills. Services include English language development, academic writing, time and task management, oral presentations, exam preparation and a range of other skills sessions, which are available to all students.

services.unimelb.edu.au/academicskills

TUTORIAL ASSISTANCE

Students who would benefit from additional individual tutorial sessions to assist with understanding subject content may make use of their Supplementary Academic Support fund. Your Student Contact Officer will help you locate a suitable tutor and provide you with the information you need to make use of this additional support.

AUSTRALIA AWARDS SCHOLARS CLUB

The Australia Awards Scholars Club (AASC) is the student-owned social club for Australia Awards Scholars at Melbourne. The club organises several events throughout the year at which scholars, their families and friends come together to socialise and learn about each other’s cultural heritage and motivations for study.

Participating in the club is an excellent way for you to make friends, travel and see some of the interesting sights around Melbourne, and share useful information about settling in Australia.

Crenodia Mioza-Banda (Malawi), a Master of Agricultural Sciences student, won a Student Engagement Grant from the University of Melbourne. She plans to establish a mentoring program for girls in four secondary schools in Malawi, which will send role models into schools to speak on the importance of schooling, available support, and opportunities beyond secondary school.
ACCOMMODATION

Moving to Melbourne?

“The Australia Awards allowed me to study at a world-class university, in the world’s most liveable city. I’ve been given the chance to strengthen the cooperation between Australia and Vietnam and, most importantly, an opportunity to develop my knowledge and experience of gender equality and female development.”

Pham Thi Thanh Dung (Vietnam), Master of Development Studies
